THE DAILY AVALANCHE

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY.

FOR GOVERNOR,

EMERSON ETHERIDGE

OF WEAKLEY COUNTY.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

CHARLES S. CAMERON,

OF SHELBY COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS,

Hon. J. W. LEFTWICH.

FOR STATE SENATOR,

Hon. JOHN W. SMITH, of Shelby.

FOR REPRESENTATIVES,

Honorable DAN. ABLE,

Honorable W. W. COLEMAN.

FOR FLOATER.

GENERAL PHILLIP B. GLENN,

OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

Public Speaking in the Seventh Congressional District.

The undersigned, candidates for Congress, will address the people of the Seventh Congressional District at the following times and places, viz.:

Stevenson's Mill, Weakley county, Wednesday, July 24.

Como, Henry County, Thursday, July 25.

ISAAC R. HAWKINS,
WM. P. CALDWELL.

The internal revenue receipts since the 1st of July reach $20,800,000.

The wheat crop of Kentucky is unusually large this year.

The Atlanta Opinion has again changed hands, and is now owned by W. L. Scruggs, and J. B. Dumble.

Congressman Hooper, of Boston, takes one hundred thousand dollars worth of stock in the bridge over the Mississippi at Dubuque.

It is stated that Ross Winans sells from his farm, near Baltimore, $37,630 worth of milk per annum.

Fifteen dead bodies have been taken from the Bright Hope coal mine in Chesterfield, Virginia, where the explosion occurred.

A Russian Commissioner has arrived in New York, to deliver possession of our newly acquired territory.

John Stuart Mill writes to Kansas to express his delight at the prospect of female suffrage in that State.

The French exportations for the first five months of this year were 200,000,000 francs less than last year; importations, on the contrary, are 133,000,000 greater.

John W. Matthews, agent of the United States Express Company at Weston, Mo., absconded last week with $8,000 to $10,000 belonging to the company.

It is said the public debt statement for August will show a decrease of two or three million dollars during the current month. About twenty millions interest have been paid in coin and six millions in currency.

A match, ten miles trot, for five hundred dollars, between Nellie Grey and Carrie Sharp, on the 27th instant, at Schenectedy, New York, was won by Nellie Grey. Time—33:32.

Lieutenant M. F. Maury is devoting himself to literary pursuits in England. His family have joined him there. He is now at work upon a series of Southern school books, to be issued by a New York house.

General Lozada, Imperialist, is still holding out in the Alica mountains, and Corona was to be sent to drive him out with cavalry. The Consciencia Publica, of the capital, says nearly a thousand persons have been shot in that city by the Interventionary party.

A cargo of twenty-three coolies having arrived at New Orleans from Havana, the Herald says: "This being in violation of the acts of Congress, the Attorney General is preparing instructions for the district attorneys on the subject."

The best goak of the season is that perpetrated by the Rev. Dr. Evenworth, an eloquent preacher at Troy, who declared last Sunday in his pulpit that "the New York Herald is a model of accuracy and truthfulness of statement in all its departments, that other journals would do well to imitate."

Senator Sherman says he had a very pleasant time on the other side of the Atlantic. He spent a day with John Bright and another with Mr. Gladstone, had a long interview with Bismarck, and was to have gone to the country with Earl Russell, but had to break that engagement to come home. It does one of these Radical political shoddies so much good to be noticed by an English gentleman.

The Halifax Sun, of the 12th, says: "The sailboat John T. Ford, two and a half tons, arrived at this port to-day, fourteen days from Baltimore, bound to France. This tiny craft is whaleboat shape, and was manned, when she left Baltimore, by three men and one boy. By stress of weather she was driven into Light Island, Bay of Fundy, where one man, who got scared, backed out, having, before leaving, it is stated, injured the water vessels. We do not wonder at the scare, the adventure seems a most reckless one."

"A Loyal member of the Bar" writes to the Washington Chronicle as follows: "Having visited the Criminal court yesterday during the trial of Surratt, I was surprised to see him treated more like a 'lion' than a prisoner. After the proceedings were over he stood up, and it was humiliating to a lover of his country to see the returned rebels and their sympathisers grasping him by the hand. One of the most prominent of the former was an ex-Mayor of the city, who was confined for several months during the war in one of the government forts for his disloyalty. Ex-rebel soldiers are also to be seen inside the bar, with their faces so brightened up whenever any point is made which seems to favor the prisoner."

We are afraid that Cyrus Field did clutch Mr. Jones' fingers with his nose. Here is the New York Citizen's testimony: "Desiring to conciliate the press Mr. Field invited the leading journalists of the great dailies to meet him at the Union Club. They accepted the invitation, and we presume had a good dinner. Afterward, speaking was in order, and during the remarks of Mr. Field, he made sundry statements that traversed the good nature of Mr. Jones, and finally told that gentleman he lied. Peter Cooper and D. D. Field prevented a collison on the spot; but subsequently Mr. J. H. Raymond took a message to Mr. Jones, in which he demanded a retraction or an apology. Field refused to accede to the demand. Subsequently the two parties met in front of the telegraph office, and Mr. Jones, seizing Mr. Field by the nose, gave it a pull, saying, 'Now go and tell your friends you've had your nose pulled.' Before any one could interfere, the parties had separated and the matter ended."

OUR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, July 5, 1867.

Your correspondent's last letter was from Cairo. On reaching Cincinnati, armed with a letter from our kind and influential friend Colonel Paist, we presented our salam at General Shattuck's headquarters, Atlantic and Great Western railroad, where his chief clerk, Mr. Doane, arranged our matters.

Before taking the cars, we concluded to refresh the inner man with a dinner at the Burnett House. At which dining we enjoyed the pleasure of the company of General Kirby Smith and Colonel H. H. Littleton, of your city, chief of the great Ætna Insurance Agency, who, knowing that his second self, Colonel Dick Wintersmith, the generous, genial and thorough going business man, has his business in charge, was enjoying his trip for health hugely. General Smith has a railroad contract, is in fine health and hopeful, i. e. if the Conservatives do their duty.

We left Cincinnati for New York via the road aforesaid, Atlantic and Great Western, Ike Paist's great line, and pronounce it, without fear of contradiction, one of the best in the country; elegant staterooms, quick time, and a splendid country on its margin. The oil regions especially are tapped via this route. At Salamanca you take the Erie railroad, without change of cars; the schedule is thirty-eight miles an hour, in a fine road and well managed, and has one of the most finished tracks in the country. Our intention was to take the City of Boston of the Inman line from New York, that sailed on the 29th of June, but missed. So we left for Boston to sail on the China of the Cunard line, after shaking hands with Charlie Halle, who has returned from Europe, formerly of your city, and that accomplished gentleman and sterling banker, Colonel Foute. None but such a man as General Foute could have such a brother. We reached Boston at six a. m.; had a breakfast at the Parker House; reached the vessel at nine. She sailed at ten and we reached Halifax this, the 15th instant, at five p. m. The ship remaining here for some hours has given us an opportunity of walking over the city, obtaining the opinions of the people in relation to the Confederation, which we will give you from Queenstown.

We have a fair company of voyagers with us, intent on sight seeing in the Old World and bettering their health. The females are mostly spokes from the "Hub" of the universe—so-called—Boston. The males, generally fellars of the same (fellows), there are a few families from Maine, one from New Brunswick and one from Nova Scotia. The South is handsomely represented in the persons of Colonel Porter of Nashville, wife and daughter; Mr. Leech, Esq., and wife, of your city; the latter, by acceptation, is the belle of the steamer, which we most certainly indorse, as she was one of the fairest of the daughters of the Bluff City, so renowned for its belles. Colonel Porter wishes to be remembered to Captain M. W. Cluskey. Colonel Porter has his family with him, and is quite popular, owing to his otium cum dignitate which is ever pleasing; thus being an admirer of Captain Cluskey, of course he is one of us. There are many passengers whose names, as stated before, 'twill not pay to set up, however we will mention an intelligent young gentleman, Mr. Waterhouse, a resident of Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, for seventeen years. He states confidently that on the completion of the Pacific road to Memphis, the entire trade of the Islands, with their travel, will be directed from other routes. The present time is fifty-five days from Honolulu, via San Francisco, Panama, New York and steamer to Liverpool; the Pacific road will reduce the time via Memphis from the Sandwich Islands to England to twenty five days, or twelve days from Honolulu to Memphis. He states that Queen Emma, who many suppose to be reigning Queen, is Queen Dowager, her husband's brother, King Kamehameha, reigning; the population of the Islands is 70,000, that of Honolulu 12,000; form of government, constitutional monarchy. We clear from Halifax, reminding our readers of the AVALANCHE that the English have two Tophets, either of which are dreaded, one being H——, the other Halifax, therefore in this letter you have enough from such a place.

B.

ATROCIOUS OUTRAGE BY AN ARMY OFFICER.

A Citizen of Alabama Shot by Him Whilst a Prisoner Under Guard.

The Losing of Prisoners Revived.

We do not remember to have read of a more disgraceful and brutal affair than is narrated in the Mobile Tribune of the 28th. It says: Captain Shaff is the United States officer in command of Mount Vernon Hospital, and Colonel F. B. Shepherd is a well known citizen, living on the plantation in the immediate neighborhood of the Arsenal. It appears that some difficulty had arisen between the two gentlemen, which led to a challenge from Colonel Shephard. Captain Shaff responded to the challenge by sending a file of soldiers to arrest the challenger and bring him to the Arsenal. When Colonel Shephard arrived, a prisoner in the hands of the guard, Shaff began to insult and threaten him. "I am an unarmed prisoner," said Shepard, "shoot me if you choose." Whereupon Captain Shaff raised a pistol and deliberately shot his prisoner, the ball taking effect in the neck.

The above account we take from a private note written by a member of Colonel Shepard's family to a friend in Mobile. The facts of the case will be laid by the proper persons, before Colonel Shepherd, commanding the 15th regiment; and we are confident that the West Pointer will take the case in hand in a proper spirit.

Colonel Shepard's family have sent to this city for a surgeon to attend him. The note we were shown gave no account of the condition of the patient at the time it was written—yesterday. Colonel S. was sitting on his horse when Shaff shot him.

TENNESSEE ITEMS.

R. H. Williams sold his elegant residence near Clarksville, with about forty-five acres of land attached, a few days ago, to Judge T. W. King, for $14,000.

Under the head of "Suicide," the Knoxville Free Press of Sunday last, announces the death in that place of Miss Stillings, on the previous day, but gives no particulars.

The Lebanon Herald and Register says James Tolliver, son of N. Tolliver, Esq., of that place, has received the appointment as midshipman to the United States Naval Academy from that district.

Neal's State Gazette says that a company of Brownlow's militia visited Dyersburg last Tuesday morning and left the next evening.

An effort being made to make a political affair out of the killing of Scruggs in Middle Tennessee, his son writes to the Nashville Banner, saying: "If Womack and Pike killed my father, and my belief is in accordance with my testimony on the trial, politics had nothing whatever to do with it."

H. C. McLaughlin, editor of the Monitor, has placarded Bosson, the Radical member of the Legislature from Rutherford county, all over the streets of Murfreesboro, as a liar, scoundrel and coward.

Tennessee has furnished five hundred recruits for the colored regiments of the regular army during the past six months.

Two families, one of Maury, and one of Marshall, both in Middle Tennessee are, we learn, preparing to emigrate to Peru.

The Union and Dispatch says: From a private letter we learn that Governor Isham G. Harris, late of Tennessee, was well and doing well in Liverpool on the first of the present month, which was the date of our information.

The Knoxville Free Press says: We regret to learn that our friend and professional brother, John J. Blair, Esq., died at his residence in Loudon a few days ago of pneumonia. He was much esteemed by his fellow members of the bar.

The Knoxville Free Press tells a story of an old woman in East Tennessee who, at a dinner party lately, hearing of some fresh atrocities of the party in power in our State, declared, with great and emphatic seriousness, that "if that man Brownlow didn't die soon he'd go to hell alive!"

The relatives of our former distinguished fellow citizen, Hon. James Williams, now residing in Austria, have recently been advised of the marriage of his second daughter, Miss Mary C., to Prince Ferdinand de Signora des Princes de Pressicci. The happy event took place on the 30th of May. His elder daughter married, some time since, Baron Kavenah.

Mrs. Dr. W. A. Cheatham (nee Mrs. Acklin) says the Union and Dispatch, has appealed from an assessment of one hundred thousand dollars made upon some of her property by John McClelland, Assessor for Nashville district. Ninety thousand dollars of the assessment was on cotton, and the whole property was valued at a million dollars. She appeals to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, but nothing has yet transpired in the case.

Neal's (Dyersburg) State Gazette says there will be a free barbecue given at Starrett's mill on Thursday, the 8th of August. Fine speakers, good eating, and a social reunion of friends and acquaintances are the inducements offered. The object is to form a stock company for the establishment of a cotton factory in Dyer county.

Accounts from Florida, Middle and Eastern Alabama, are favorable to crops. Grain crops are abundant and generally promising.

LOCAL NEWS.

ITEMETTAS.

There have been recently a number of very daring robberies in Hernando.

At the crossing of Second and Jefferson streets the Nicolson pavement is giving way.

Since last Saturday there have been near a dozen house robberies and burglaries in this city, and not a single important arrest.

The deservedly popular C. W. S. Brown, General Southern Agent for the Little Miami railroad, arrived in Memphis yesterday.

Marzoratti is to have a grand musical election free lunch on Wednesday morning, at No. 35 Monroe street.

The new jail will be entirely completed and ready for occupation in October. The work is progressing now on the second tier of cells.

Twenty five fat carcasses of cattle, pigs, and sheep have been got ready for the barbecue at Brownsville to-day.

A Memphis correspondent of the Commercial, New Albany, tells that there are twenty deaths a day from cholera. This is about double the whole number of deaths from all causes.

The recent reports of the Assessors show that there are three polls taxed in the Fourteenth Civil District, and not a single one in the Fifth Civil District.

The Radical party proposes to restore peace and prosperity to the country by depriving a hundred thousand white men in Tennessee of equal rights with the most ignorant blacks of the State.

Quite a lot of Radicals had a gay old time Monday, out near Elmwood Cemetery, on the occasion of a white girl, of rather prepossessing appearance, marrying a big, very dark black man.

The use of a "nom de plume," Monday, in one of the evening papers, was supposed to reflect upon a literary gentleman who has used the same name previously, and a serious difficulty seemed imminent, but mutual explanations cured all.

Rutt Powell, Esq., the indispensable attache of our tax collectors office, has sent us a specimen tomato of the Chichihua variety, grown by himself, which is a fair attempt to beat all creation. It is somewhere between a tea pot and a half bushel in size.

It is a matter of great importance to many persons, to know that notes insufficiently stamped or non-stamped, if made within a year, can be properly stamped to-day by Collector Rolf Sanders without the enforcement of the penalty, but after to-day he will have no authority to correct without the enforcement of the penalty of $50.

It is reported that little General Smith jostled against an ex-Federal soldier, a little Ohio chap, at Somerville, and, as he would not apologise to a common soldier, the common soldier trounced him soundly.

Captain James Somerville, who went out in command of the celebrated Shelby Grays, and was one of the most gallant soldiers in the Confederate army, has just returned to Memphis on a visit. He is now practicing law in Grenada, Mississippi, and is in fine health and spirits.

The firm of Bielock & Co., which some time ago, during financial panic, made an assignment, has had a a complete investigation of its affairs in its branches in different cities, and is found to have one hundred thousand dollars more assets than liabilities.

An effort was made by Dr. White Monday in the County Commission to dispense with Noll and his horse, saddle and bridle, and spend the money for disinfectants, but the proposition was voted down.

At the meeting at Poplar street Market Monday night, a colored man made some very sensible remarks to his colored brethren on the impolicy of their being led by designing demagogues into hostility to the great body of the Southern white people, who own the land and give food and shelter to the colored people.

Dr. White proposed, Monday, in the Board of County Commissioners, that matters affecting the whole people very much should be published in several papers of wide circulation rather than in one party organ that had few readers, but the other Commissioners, with the exception of Mr. Hack, could not see it in that light. They didn't want to act otherwise than as narrow minded partisans.

The County Commissioners Monday ordered Sheriff Winters not to call out fifteen hundred men as he proposed, for the preservation of the public peace. A request would certainly have been in better taste, as the Commissioners have no power to command in such a case.

A very respectable citizen of La Grange has sent us a letter to refute some statements which he pronounces lies, that have appeared in the Radical organ, about the killing of Thompson recently. The affair did not grow out of past political discussion. Burton is no relative of the Burton who killed Erickson. There is no more quiet and orderly community than that of La Grange.

The compliments that recently passed between two of the County Commissioners were closely imitated on Monday, in a spirited colloquy, between the County Doctor Laski and County Commissioner, Doctor White. Billingsgate fishwomen could take lessons at the meetings of our partizan County Board.

The election of Brownlow and the Radical ticket will settle it that the majority of the white people of the State are to be disfranchised, taxed without representation, and ruled by unprincipled demagogues who have more than doubled the annual expenses of the State. It will settle it that for years longer there is to be confusion, hostility of parties, the keeping alive of old grudges, a state of society that capital will shun and immigration keep far from.

On last Saturday afternoon, on Center alley, above Winchester street, a brutal fight occurred, the combatants tumbling about the street, the gutter and the sidewalk, now up, now down, for one half an hour, until covered with blood and mud. They were separated by friends, to the intense disgust of a hundred and fifty blacks and whites, men, women and children, who were enjoying the melee. Police were wanted as bottle holders and seconds, but they did not make their appearance.

City Pound.

Be it ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

SECTION 1. That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for the owner of dogs, goats or stock of any kind (except milch cows) to allow them to run at large throughout the city.

SEC. 2. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall elect a pound keeper every year, or as often as may be necessary, whose duty it shall be to establish a pound within the corporate limits of the city, in which he may impound all stock found running at large throughout the city.

SEC. 3. Said pound keeper may charge not exceeding fifty cents a head per day for dogs, goats and hogs, and not exceeding seventy five cents a head per day if called away the owner, for all others taken impounded, as a remuneration for his services in [illegible] and keeping up said pound, and shall feed and take proper care of all animals in said pound.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the pound keeper to keep a book in which he shall enter a description and kind of each animal taken up and enclosed in said pound, the precise time of the day said animals are enclosed, and a list of the description and kind of all animals in said pound, and the time they were placed therein, shall be posted up at each pound between every twelve hours. Said book shall at all times be open for the inspection of the Mayor and any member of the Board of Aldermen and Police Commissioners.

SEC. 5. All persons who may have stock or any animal in said pound may, on proving his or her property and paying the charges, take the same away, and the pound keeper shall take the name and residence of every person to whom stock or any kind is delivered, the description of the animal or animals, the time when taken away, and the amount paid by them to the keeper for keeping said animal or animals so taken.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the City Scavenger to destroy all dogs not reclaimed in five days after having been inclosed in said pound, and all other animals not reclaimed in ten days may be sold for the benefit of the city.

SEC. 7. Said pound keeper shall enter into bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties.

SEC. 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances coming in conflict with any of the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Approved June 6, 1867.

Paving Streets.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

SECTION 1. That there shall be issued City Bonds with interest coupons attached, to the amount of $[illegible], for the purpose of paving the streets and alleys of the city, and which shall be denominated "Paving Bonds."

SEC. 2. A board of three Trustees shall be appointed by the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen, to be called the "Bond Trustees," and who shall be appointed to serve until January, 1868, 1870 and 1871; the term of service of each to be determined by lot, and they shall be eligible to re-election.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of said Board of Trustees to receive such portion of the revenue of the city as shall be paid them by the City Treasurer, and to disburse the same in the following manner: 1st. To pay the interest on the bonds herein provided to be issued, as the same becomes due. 2d. To invest any balance on hand in the bonds themselves at their market value, and to return the bonds and coupons thus retired to the City Controller, who shall cancel the same.

SEC. 4. The City Treasurer shall pay over weekly to said Bond Trustees one sixth of his receipts from revenue, beginning on the second Tuesday in January 1868, and continuing until the sum of $[illegible] shall have been paid.

SEC. 5. Said Trustees shall each enter into bond in the penal sum of $[illegible] for the faithful discharge of the duties prescribed in this ordinance, and shall receive for compensation such salary as shall be allowed by the Board of Aldermen.

SEC. 6. At least five days after the final passage of this ordinance, the Mayor shall, by proclamation, order an election to test the sense of the qualified voters of the city of Memphis as to the issuance of the amount of paving bonds provided for by this ordinance in accordance with the provisions of the city charter.

Passed May 21, and approved June 1, 1867.

ELECT EMERSON ETHERIDGE Governor of Tennessee on Thursday, and peace will reign supreme throughout the borders of the State of Tennessee. There will be no Indemnity bills passed to tax the honest people of the State to pay worthless vagabonds and bankrupts for property they never owned. Elect EMERSON ETHERIDGE Governor, and peace and quiet will be given to a people sick and weary of strife and discord. Elect EMERSON ETHERIDGE Governor of Tennessee on to-morrow and there will be no distinction in races. All men will be placed on equality. No man will be disfranchised, and we will be a united, prosperous people. The whole machinery of our State Government will move on smoothly and beautifully, just as our fathers had arranged and set it in motion. Elect BROWNLOW and he will have despotism, tyranny, strife and discord. The Indemnity bill will be passed which will tax the people, already groaning under enormous taxation, for the purpose of enriching scoundrels and bankrupts. Strife and discord will be perpetuated. E[illegible] will continue in power a politician without principle, a preacher without righteousness, a professed Christian without one solitary grace, a Governor without authority, administrative, ability, or patriotism. A professed child of God, he is a son of Belial; an enemy of all righteousness, an imp of darkness and a foe to the human race. His lips are redolent with guile, a deadly, putrescent odor exhales from his tongue, which is set on fire of hell. Professing piety, he is notorious for his blasphemy. He pollutes the paper on which he writes, infuses a deadly poison in his pen and ink, and even sets the telegraph on fire with the deadly hate that flares in his rotten heart—burns and blazes in his miscreant bosom. He never had one lofty feeling, one noble conception, one generous emotion. An effort to produce one generous thought, one high aspiration, would break asunder the fibers of his corrupt heart. Low, sensual and devilish, he is a walking photograph of the devil. His infamous bosom is the abiding place of such restless, fiery and corroding passions that if his bones were not iron and his flesh brass, they would ignite and burn by spontaneous combustion. He is more of a cynic than DIOGENES, more of a tyrant than CALIGULA, more of a fiend than NERO, and more of a beast than BUTLER, with volcanic fires ever burning with quenchless fury in his polluted bones he is a moving type of hell. Compared to him, Lucifer is a saint, and APOLYON is a paragon of mercy. Devils could learn lessons of profanity from him; the most ambitious would despair of equaling his audacity in blaspheming the name of Him, before whom even devils fear and tremble. He never opens his mouth, but corruption, more foetid than rises from carcasses of the dead pollutes the moral atmosphere. He is a body of moral death filling the chair of State, and the Capitol of Tennessee with ordor from which even buzzards would turn with dismay. He is the embodiment of total depravity, and his name is the synonym of all that is base, and vile and degraded, and low. His very utterance is enough to infest the atmosphere with the most deadly miasma. In after years the child will shudder when he reads a name so allied to infamy, so linked with corruption, and so far sunk in darkness that no ray of light can ever reach it. His life of infamy will soon close. The hand writing is on the wall. His livid, naked spirit will soon pass to its companionship with beings more degraded than the fabled harpies. A crawling reptile, that has polluted all that he has touched on earth, shall soon cease to befoul with his filthy slime the high or the low places of society. Worse than JUDAS ISCARIOT he will soon seek and find a doom more dismal than awaited the wretch who betrayed his Saviour. Let him go and receive the doom which justice claims, and which a righteous God is sure to adjudge. There we leave him, for the most malignant would shrink back appalled at the fate of one, who, having stole the livery of heaven to serve the devil in, now meets a doom in comparison with which SATAN's is a paradise; now passes to a clime so intensely hot and suffocating that the place where DIVES dwells seems the land of frost and snow. So foul have been his words here that they have already festered and putrefied his almost brazen throat; and so terrible and despairing shall be his wail there, that the cries of the lost shall seem in comparison as the voices of mirth.

WE most earnestly entreat all good and conservative feeling men who have certificates, and are entitled to vote, to deposit ETHERIDGE ballots. Let the whole ticket, without a scratch upon it, be supported. If ever there was a time when true patriotism demanded a full and united expression at the polls, it is the present. Posterity will never forgive lukewarmness now. The moment has come, when, with a resolute and united effort, the destinies of the State may be wrested from the corrupt hands into which they have fallen, and which sway them to rivet eternal fetters upon those whose limbs should be free, and to whom freedom was a birthright.

THE duties of Committees of vigilance do not cease with the active service of the campaign before election day. On that day they must see that every Conservative voter, who can possibly be brought to the polls, shall deposit his ballot. We must not be defeated, by supineness, and not a vote that can be counted, must remain undeposited.

THE Kentucky election will take place on the first Monday in August, four days after our own election. There can be no doubt of the result. The people of Kentucky will resent the infamous insult offered her by Congress, and roll up such a majority as will astonish the "Radical rascals" who would strip her of her Constitutional and sovereign rights. They understand the "lay of the land." Tennessee's example is fresh and flush before them, and they do not want any of it. The Courier, in a very able article on Tennessee, as "A Model State," uses this language, in pointing the people of Kentucky to their sure fate, if they prove derelict now: "The misfortunes which now overwhelm Tennessee will be repeated in Kentucky if the Radicals and their allies succeed in accomplishing their disreputable and ruinous designs." Beyond all peradventure. No axiom is more plain —not even "things equal to the same are equal to one another." Let us send Kentucky something to cheer her patriotic citizens. We can, if every man will do his duty.

THE time for argument is passed. We can now only appeal. The moments are too precious, and minds too excited, to listen to calm and serious explanation, with all the concurrent facts and logical deductions, that, with more leisure and cooler consideration, might force conviction. The hour is upon us, and carpe diem should be the uppermost in every heart. Make the most of the opportunity. Such another may not be presented again. What though the tyrant surveys the result with the satisfied leer of the cunning despot, bent on perpetuating his power, and ready to apply the stern resolve of his unbridled will, in breaking down every constitutional barrier—setting aside every expression by the people—disfranchising even those whom his own satellites had enfranchised, and clinging to his place with the energy of despair and death, let us do our duty. Let it not be said of us that we gave way in "the imminent deadly breach," threw down our arms and surrendered ourselves voluntary prisoners. No! On to the rescue! Let the forlorn hope advance. "Hang out your banners on the outward wall." In the language of the great bard.

"Come woe, come wrack,
At least we'll die with harness on our back."

Be early at the polls. See that your ballots are in due form. Resolve that not a vote shall be lost or squandered.

RAIN or shine, rally to the contest early and promptly on Thursday. The Conservative hosts are not fair weather patriots. Push on the column, and achieve a glorious victory.

AGAIN let us invoke peace. If any should so far forget themselves as to instigate broils and difficulties, let them emanate from the opponents of the Conservatives—not from our people. The determined and resolved man can turn a deaf ear to taunts and jibes, when advancing to deposit his ballot. Knowing his right, he can answer directly such questions as may be propounded relative to that right. It is only the spurious voter who shrinks investigation and is irritable from fear of exposure. Remember this.

A day or two before the adjournment of the late session of Congress Mr. Sumner admonished the members of the Senate that it would be well to prepare their minds for the reception, within the next twelve months or so, of a sprinkling of Senators of African descent from the Southern States.

BEAUMONT AS A SOLDIER.

He Enlists in two Companies, but his Private Business Compels him to Desert.

He Gives his Horse, Arms and Equipments to a Substitute.

MEMPHIS, July 30, 1867.

EDITORS MEMPHIS AVALANCHE: I was in the Confederate States army upwards of four years; surrendered with the army under General Joseph E. Johnston at Greensboro, N. C., in April, 1865; returned to my business in Memphis 19th of June, 1865, and being a disfranchised rebel, have taken no part in the politics of the country. Have never attended a political meeting since I received my parole in April, 1865, and have yielded faithful obedience, not only to all laws, but to all enactments of the Legislature both State and Federal.

I thought that no inducement would prevail on me to appear either in public or in print, until I could claim the rights of an enfranchised citizen, being now disfranchised for fifteen years by an enactment of the Legislature of Tennessee. But an article to the public, published yesterday morning in some of the newspapers of the city, purporting to emanate from one S. B. Beaumont, &c., compels me to withdraw from my previous sentiment to expose this hero in peace, and coward in war. In February, 1861, this Beaumont joined the first cavalry company raised in Tennessee, several months before the secession of the State, which occurred on the 6th of May, 1861.

When that company went into service about the first of August, 1861, in the rebellion, he withdrew from the company, and on his withdrawal made a very rebellious speech, telling his comrades that his heart was with them, and nothing but his private business prevented his going with them to the field, that he would soon join them. This was the company that entered the service of the Confederate States under Captain Thomas H. Logwood, afterwards promoted to colonel.

This same Beaumont shortly afterwards joined Captain McDonald's company of cavalry, and in that company I have had the misfortune to have drilled side by side with him. I say misfortune, because it is that to have ever associated with a deserter on terms of equality, even as a private in the same company.

When this company was mustered into the service of the Confederate States, the private business of this same Beaumont prevented his facing danger, but he gave his horse, arms and equipments to a substitute. All this occurred nearly twelve months before there was any conscription by the so called Confederate States. His career subsequent to June, 1861, I am not acquainted with personally, but from information I learn that his private business prevented his joining either army. But after the war is over and peace is declared, this deserter from the two companies he joined, and the man whose private business prevented his joining either army, Union or Confederate, is a loud mouthed, blatant Radical, and seeks military renown with the "boys in blue," backed, as he thinks, by Major General Thomas, and would share with that distinguished General the laurels won by danger upon many a battlefield while he was at home attending to his private business.

Many of the members of Captain Logwood's and J. McDonald's original companies, "sleep the sleep that knows no waking." Their testimony can never be taken, until that last great day when the judgment and sentence for eternity will be rendered. But there are enough of these companies still living in this community, of all professions and business, who can establish the statements of this communication if the said Beaumont dares publicly deny them.

The liabilities of the Unadilla Bank, of New York, which broke Saturday, are not less than a quarter of a million, and are even estimated at over a million of dollars. It is feared depositors will not receive ten cents on the dollar.

On Monday Mrs. Emily M[illegible]x, wife of an esteemed citizen of Troy, New York, committed suicide by throwing herself into the Hudson. She had taken laudanum, and was undoubtedly laboring under mental aberration.

The telegraph brings more intelligence of executions and acts of violence by the Liberals of Mexico. General Viduari was lately shot, in the City of Mexico. He asked for an interview with General Diaz. This was refused. A request for an interview with his son was also refused. The dominant faction are gloating in a carnival of blood.

A fight occurred among an excursion party which went up the Hudson, New York, on Sunday, on the steamer William Titamere and two barges. One man was pushed overboard and drowned, two others stabbed, and a large number injured. The fight lasted nearly the whole time the party was absent, most of whom, including a number of females, were innocent spectators of the brutal scene.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 30.

The following order is in print this evening:

HEADQ'RS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT,
NEW ORLEANS, July 30.

A careful consideration of the reports of Brevet Major General Charles Griffin, United States Army, shows that J. W. Throckmorton, Governor of Texas, is an impediment to the reconstruction of that State under the law. He is therefore removed. E. M. Pease is hereby appointed Governor of Texas in his stead, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

By command of Major General P. H. Sheridan.
GEO. L. HARTSUFF, Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

The Republican of the 30th states that Pease was recommended by A. J. Hamilton. Pease is a native of Connecticut, but has been a resident of Texas since 1833; a lawyer of eminence at the Texas bar, has served in both branches of the Texas Legislature, and was twice elected Governor, serving from 1853 to 1857. He was a consistent Union man during the war.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 30.

The Tribune's Florence correspondent says the present Prime Minister, Ratazzi, is not as unconditional a champion of complete separation between Church and State as was his predecessor, Ricasoli, but he is also willing to give liberty to the church whenever she is willing to abandon her prerogatives. The majority of the Chamber still holds to old European views, that the powers of the State Government extend over religious affairs.

Garibaldi is exceedingly amazed at the absurd attempt made to cross the Roman frontier. It is true that he remains on the continent in the hope of assistance in the solution of the Roman question; that he had given arms and money; that Mazzini had sent in arms; but the programme was that the Romans should commence and that the Italians outside should assist them by means of a second Marcella expedition, but too many were let into the secret, and a few that Frementi incited by an ex-Minister, thought to raise a laurel crown for themselves, and failed. Garribaldi, in an angry letter to the Gazette, says De Toromo has raised a storm about his head, but he declares he and his friends intend to fight for the capitol of Italy, and he will keep his word.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 30.

It is expected that the Commissioners appointed by act of Congress to treat with hostile Indians, will assemble at St. Louis on the 6th of August for organization and arrangement of programme. Those now in the Atlantic States will start for the point of rendezvous at once. No difficulty is apprehended. The territory proposed will be appropriated as a permanent home for the Indians. That portion of it comprising the northwestern section of Texas is cut off from the residue of the State by what is called stake plains and sandy waste, and the consent of the State, (if that, indeed, in these times should be deemed necessary,) can be procured at a comparative trifle. It is estimated that the whole expense of this plan of ending forever the Indian difficulties will not exceed the cost of carrying on present quasi warfare a single year.

In the Surratt trial Carrington again consumed the whole day in arguing the case.

Judge Blatchford has denied motion to vacate the attachment against Vernon K. Stevenson, quartermaster of transportation in the Confederate army, and alleged defaulter to the the United States Government of a million dollars, by conveying and selling in New York three thousand bales of cotton.

A letter from Monterey says Lopez, who betrayed Maximilian, has been arrested by the Governor of Oaxaca and will be executed.

ALABAMA ITEMS.

The caterpillars have made their appearance on the cotton in the river bottoms of Monroe county, causing much alarm among the planters.

The Selma Messenger of the 24th, says: "There is some sickness in the city, but not as much as is usual at this season of the year, and it is generally in a very mild form."

John McCool, a one armed painter of not very good habits, cut his throat Tuesday at Greenville. The Advocate understands that he is dead.

General Swayne ordered the negro military company in Wilcox county to disband.

The Columbus Enquirer publishes the proceedings of a meeting of citizens of Lee county, of Northern birth, but long residents in the South before the war. They declare most of the acts of Congress touching the South, since the war, to be in violation of the Constitution, and tender thanks to Horace Greeley (by name) and all others who have exercised justice, hoping that they may form a party, by whatever name, so powerful as to preserve the Constitution.

A party of Lowndes county citizens passed through Montgomery a few days since to look at Brazil. The Hayneville Chronicle says that "the party consisted of Mr. Daniel Rast and son, Thomas Gordon, G. Dunklin and George Davidson, Jr. Although we regret very much to part with our citizens, we hope that they may be pleased with their new home, and all their expectations be fully realized."

GROVER & BAKER'S
CELEBRATED
ELASTIC STITCH & LOCK STITCH

SEWING MACHINES

Why the Grover & Baker Machine is Best.

1. It is more simple, durable, and less liable to derangement than others.
2. It sews from ordinary spools, and no rewinding of thread is necessary.
3. It sews with equal facility all fabrics, the most delicate and heaviest, and with all kinds of thread or silk, cotton or linen.
4. Its seam is so strong and elastic that it never breaks, even on the bias.
5. It fastens both ends of the seam by its own operation.
6. Its seam, though cut at every sixth inch, remains firm, and neither runs nor ravels in wear.
7. Its seam is more plump and beautiful, and retains its plumpness and beauty after washing better than any other.
8. Its seam can be removed in altering garments, after proper instruction, with out picking or cutting them.
9. Watching and placing the tension upon the threads necessary in other machines, is unnecessary in this. The tension being once adjusted on the Grover & Baker machine, any amount of sewing may be done without change.
10. It makes beautiful embroidery without any change of arrangement, simply by inserting threads of suitable size and colors for this purpose. It is the only machine that both embroiders and sews perfectly.

SECOND DRAWING
OF THE
SOUTHERN ASYLUM LAND CO.
TO BE HELD
AT HERNANDO, MISS, AUGUST, 1867

THE FIRST DRAWING, which took place at Hernando Miss., on the 15th inst., was attended with an unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. Seventeen hundred and fifty of the tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner.

HERNANDO, MISS., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify, that the above report of the first drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justice unsurpassed by any drawing of which we have any knowledge. The managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.

F. M. HALL, Clerk.

The prizes drawn on this occasion numbered forty seven, and comprised lots in the vicinity of Memphis, Tenn., Corinth, Miss., and Hernando, Miss., deeds to which have been made to the lucky ticket holders. For this, the Second Drawing, however, we are able to offer our patrons still more attractive inducements to interest themselves in our scheme. From a lengthy list of property, much of which has already been advertised to the public, we select the following as our

LIST OF PRIZES

FIRST AND CAPITAL PRIZE.

Colonel M. C. Gallaway's valuable residence, corner of Court and Third streets, Memphis, one block only from the center of the city, and in the vicinity of all the Federal, State and county offices. Lot 37½ feet front by 225 deep. Valued at $20,000.

SECOND PRIZE.

A cottage residence of ten rooms, with lot 53x165, in the city of Chicago, Ill., only three quarters of a mile from the heart of the city, and within one block of the horse railroad intersecting every part of the city. Valued at $8,000.

THIRD PRIZE.

One residence lot adjoining above property, 25x100 feet; very available for residence and desirably located. Valued at $[illegible].

FOURTH PRIZE.

One residence lot adjoining above property, 25x100 feet. Valued at $800.

FIFTH PRIZE.

One residence lot adjoining above, also 25x100 feet. Valued at $800.

SIXTH PRIZE.

A most valuable manufacturing site with a perpetual fall of 57 feet of water situated in Wilcox county, Alabama, with 160 acres of land. Valued at $10,000.

SEVENTH PRIZE.

The Franklin Female Institute, at Holly Springs, Miss.: a handsome and well constructed school building, most eligibly located. This is very desirable property. Valued at $8,000.

EIGHTH PRIZE.

Lot No. 5, in Hays' subdivision, Memphis; size 100x[illegible] feet. A beautiful building lot. Valued at $2,000.

NINTH PRIZE.

Seventy five and a half acres of Woodland near Raleigh, Shelby county, Tennessee, distant from Memphis nine miles. This is very desirable, and an excellent prize. Valued at $2,[illegible].

TENTH PRIZE.

Cottage residence, 5 rooms; lot 125x170 feet, on Borland avenue, near Memphis and Charleston railroad, near corporation line. Valued at $4,000.

Tickets $5.00 Each.

May be had of, or ordered through, any of the Company's agents, at the Central Agency, Memphis, Tenn., or of Colonel James Strain, Hernando, Miss. Stockholders, directors and Officers of the Company are prohibited from purchasing or holding tickets in any of the drawings. The company is simply the medium for the purchase and sale of real estate between property holders, and the general public.

Mad Dogs! Mad Stones!

I HAVE half a dozen pieces of MAD STONE, which have been applied successfully to several hundred cases of the bite of mad dogs, both by myself, in this country, and my father in Virginia.

Dr. M. W. WEBBER, at Luxahoma, DeSoto county, Miss., has a piece of the same stone.

Any one suffering from the bite of a mad dog can be treated by applying to me at my home, five miles north of Coldwater, on the old Lagrange road.
MATTHEW W. WEBBER.

AUCTION.

Sales This Day.

Unreserved Sale of 34 Lots on Long Time.

WE will sell at public sale, without reserve, to the highest bidder, on Wednesday, July 31st, thirty four building lots, [illegible] by [illegible] feet, on Breedlove, Crockett and Volunteer [illegible], lying [illegible] between the old and new Raleigh road, two miles from Court square, and nearly opposite the old Fair Grounds, [illegible] title; sale positive. Terms—one-fourth cash; balance in six, twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months, with interest; secured by deed in trust. [illegible] leave the premises at [illegible] o'clock. Conveyance to the Sale leave our office at nine o'clock.

The Buntyn
HOMESTEAD LANDS
FOR SALE.

WE have the pleasure of placing on the market these very desirable and valuable lands, so well known to the community as the Homestead Tract of the late Geraldus Buntyn, Esq., situated at the first station on the Memphis and Charleston railroad five miles east of the city. The improvements, with about twenty acres of land, have been recently sold to Hume F. Hill, Esq., who now resides upon the premises. The balance of the tract, consisting of about 200 acres, has been laid off in lots varying in size from five to ten acres, fronting upon broad avenues, and laid off so as to secure the greatest amount of comfort. The trains of the Memphis and Charleston railroad afford the opportunity of going in and out of the city, from and to Buntyn's Station four times a day, so as to make a residence at this point almost as convenient as to live in the city itself.

The entire can now be had of lots wholly or part in original forest, or in field.

IN EXCHANGE FOR CITY PROPERTY.

The executors are directed by the will to sell this place and invest in city property, and we will receive improved or unimproved city property in exchange for improved or vacant lots in the city.

To all parties looking for a suburban residence, we do not think any property more desirable can be found, in regard to health, convenience of good neighborhood, within the same distance from the city.

The terms will be made very liberal and easy, and the prices low to parties desirous of buying for occupation.

Plats of the subdivision will be shown at our office.
ROYSTER, TREZEVANT & CO.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A Card.

JOHN CANNAVAN, in order to gain some little public notoriety has been occupying some valuable space in the Memphis AVALANCHE for the past two days, publishing cards about some ten thousand dollars in notes, which he executed to me in 1861.

He wants to make it appear that he executed three notes to me, amounting to twenty thousand dollars—one for ten thousand dollars and two for five thousand dollars each.

I want him to understand distinctly that I have not the misfortune to hold twenty thousand dollars of his notes, but that I am unfortunate enough to hold ten thousand dollars of his notes, which I [illegible] in two notes of five thousand dollars each, which I call [illegible] to hold against him.

It seems he wants the public to believe that his notes are very valuable, and wants me to show what I deposited as my capital stock in the Citizens' Union Bank, and if I have not deposited his notes as such.

I will say that I have not deeming your notes worthless, I would not present them in payment of any amount; and that the stock which I own in the Citizens' Union Bank, Merchants' National Bank, and Germania National Bank, I have paid for in currency and not in worthless notes.

I decline taking any further notice of any foolish and nonsensical cards emanating from the said Cannavan.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY,

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'s medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHEA, ANEMIA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and OBSTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PHTHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as this syrup is liable to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—Dr. Burin du Buisson's (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine) Digestive Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LONG AND LABORIOUS DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND LOINS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brasils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervescing mineral and gaseous water to be drunk at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from difficult or suspended Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron. This celebrated preparation has the advantage to prevent costiveness or constipation, and to contain a certain portion of manganese, considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of iron taken by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetals.

Where all other medicines have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

THE GREAT POPULARITY OF THE CHARTER OAK COOKING STOVES

HAS led some unprincipled manufacturers to imitate the design and name. All these imitations are inferior and badly constructed stoves, but so nearly do some of them resemble the original in external appearance as to be easily mistaken for it.

I therefore warn the public that I shall promptly prosecute every person, whether dealer or manufacturer, who shall infringe on my rights by imitating, or using the name or design of the

"CHARTER OAK."

The original Patent Hot Air Flue CHARTER OAK COOKING STOVES are made exclusively by the Excelsior Manufacturing Company, St. Louis. Each stove has my name and date of patent on it. All others are imitations and liable to prosecution.

QUEER VOTING PLACE.—Opposite Exchange Building, partly down the declivity, has been nailed together a few boards, as if for a temporary cow-shed. Its dimensions are six by ten, or thereabouts, is fenced off, through which the voter must "file" to reach the polling officers. Immediately in front of this lane is a triangular railing to keep the crowd from pushing upon the line of voters, or even to be so contiguous as to whisper words of counsel in the ear of any who may be oblivious of his intentions. This is a queer voting place, and must have greatly puzzled the genius under whose directions it was completed. We would ask if there could be procured no more decent and respectable looking place, where the judges and officers of election may sit while engaged in the fatiguing duties they will be called upon to discharge? Such a rain as we had the other day would soon expel the occupants, and already it has been employed for sacrificial offerings to Cloacina, for which doubtless, the worshippers of that divinity imagined it was intended.

M. Kraus & Co.'s (No. 218 Main street) damaged stock of dry goods must be sold within the next ten days.

FRACAS LAST NIGHT.—Twelve or fourteen United States soldiers went into the Cotton Plant saloon, on Washington street, last night and got a drink, but did not pay for it. A party of other fellows set upon and beat them pretty roughly. They had a rough and tumble fight for fifteen minutes. Subsequently one soldier was arrested on a charge of having been in the row.

NORTH AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK. JOHN B SMITH, General Agent, No. 290 Front street, or No. 1 Madison street, up stairs.—It will be seen that this first class insurance institution has opened an office in our city. Of the company itself, it is unnecessary to speak. Its assets are nearly $3,000,000, and its integrity and standing is beyond all reproach. The General Agent, Mr. John B. Smith, of Nashville, is a gentleman in the highest sense of the term, in whom the public may repose the greatest confidence, and whose selection by so reputable a company, as its agent, is a sufficient guarantee of his commercial integrity and personal reliability. We commend the North American and its courteous agent to our readers.

A MOST ENTHUSIASTIC MASS MEETING.

Whites and Blacks Rallying for Equal Rights.

The great hall at the corner of Hernando and Beale streets was last night packed by an enthusiastic crowd of white and colored voters, who listened to, and from time to time loudly applauded the generous, manly utterances of the speakers, who, in the name of Conservatism, demanded equal rights, justice and liberty.

Colonel John Martin presided ably.

The first speaker was the Hon. John W. Smith, who contrasted the narrow minded aims of Radicalism with the liberal principles of the Conservative party. He sketched the Radical leaders; their aiding the rebellion, their desertion of it, and their bitterness now to those whom they inveigled into rebellion. One of his hardest hits was his contrasting the Radical candidate Hamilton as Confederate agent confiscating property while he (the speaker) was in the Federal army fighting for the Union. Yet now the Radicals consider Hamilton their model of loyalty. The speech of Mr. Smith was full of telling points, and was frequently loudly applauded.

The Hon. John W. Leftwich made a magnificent speech. It was able, logical, and so clear that the most ignorant hearer could understand and feel its points. He wanted them to think why the hearts of men of different parties were more widely severed now than at the close of the war. He illustrated the fact that they are so by a sketch of the recent unfortunate affair at Purdy. He showed that such an unfortunate state of affairs grew out of the desperate struggles of a party to retain power in their own hands by limiting the rights of others, and by exciting bad feelings. He recited the indictment of our revolutionary fathers against King George, and showed that exactly the same tyrannical usurpations had been practiced by Brownlow. The reference to illegal appointments of judges led the speaker to make a beautiful allusion to one of the noble judges whom he knew in boyhood, and to contrast him with Brownlow's miserable Judge Hurst. Mr. Leftwich traced the evils to grow out of the Indemnity bill, and said that although it would give him $143,000, he was opposed to it as most oppressive and unjust.

The latter part of Mr. Leftwich's remarks was addressed to the colored men, who were present in large numbers. He showed them that they had no thanks to give Radicalism for being free, nor thanks to Brownlow, who had been their persistent bitter enemy. No other man of any party had gone thirteen hundred miles to traduce blacks and defend slavery. He even recently favored their freedom, because it would lead to their extermination. The whites and blacks of the south had identity of interest. Why should they allow renegades, whose antecedents are all unknown, to stir up strife for the sake of securing offices?

The blacks listened with great attention. Many of them had known and loved Mr. Leftwich for years, and it was interesting to see the effect his words had on all the colored men present.

Colonel Dan Able made a short but pointed and able speech. He expressed his satisfaction that United States soldiers are here to protect every man, Radical or Conservative, in his right to vote as he saw fit.

Colonel Able sketched some salient points in the career of Barbour Lewis, the great Radical leader, who as a Judge of a Civil Commission, for a consideration, made in one day two decisions that were diametrically opposed to each other. The unwillingness of F. S. Richards to favor the improvement of blacks, and the dodging of Dan Nunn to escape voting on any important measure, were finely sketched. He closed by some happy hits at Ryder's rebel services, and appealed to all to stand firmly and work actively at the polls for equal rights to all men. [Cheers.]

Mr. Folk, of Haywood county, made a very inspiriting and eloquent speech. He had sympathized with the oppressed everywhere, and therefore he felt for those who were, by the Brownlow party, deprived of that great and inestimable right —the right of suffrage.

Mr. Brown, of Nashville, a talented colored man, who has traveled far, and made good use of his opportunities, was next called out and made a telling speech that was loudly applauded. He told numerous cases where he had heard Brownlow say "negroes should never have equal rights;" had heard him hope his right arm would drop from his shoulder, and his hair drop off when he favored negroes having the same rights as a white man.

The speech of this colored man, and that of a colored man named Thomas, had an excellent effect. The meeting, with the exception of one colored hackman named Joe, seemed entirely harmonious and enthusiastic.

MORE SQUANDERING COUNTY FUNDS.

A Sinecure Office Given to a Negro.

Wishing to reward a noisy Radical negro named Harris, and thus stimulate other blacks with the hope of getting on the police or in other official positions, the shamelessly partizan County Commissioners created yesterday two uncalled for sinecure offices, and filled them by giving one to John T. Harris, a noisy black fellow who has for months done little else than go about making mischievous speeches in the interest of Brownlow, and the other to a white man named Robert P. Clark, whom one of the Commissioners has very special reason for favoring.

These newly appointed black and white officials are to be designated County Sanitary Inspectors. Their duties are to be pretty much whatever they please, and they are to draw each one hundred dollars a month from the county treasury. Perhaps these County Sanitary Inspectors may advise with the Board of Health, and indicate the duties of the doctors. Perhaps they may affiliate with the sanitary squad of the Metropolitan Police and thus mildly familiarize the force with colored associations. They may sometimes take pleasant strolls along the Raleigh, the Pigeon Roost or other roads, and smell out nuisances for somebody to remove, if said somebody wants them taken away.

This appointment of Harris is a cute electioneering dodge. It will be at once reported in every cabin in the county. Promises will be held out that if the colored men work hard for Brownlow on election day, they will all get places on the county sanitary squad or the Metropolitan Police. When the election is over, the County Commissioners will conclude that really there is no use for a county sanitary squad, and will discharge Mr. Harris, and throw a wet blanket on the hopes of colored aspirants. What will Barbour Lewis and his associates care? They only want to use the colored man on election day.

The special train for Brownsville will leave at seven o'clock this morning, and will return this evening in time to enable all who so wish to join in the grand Conservative demonstration at the Greenlaw Opera House. Mr. Leftwich will speak at Brownsville to-day. There will be a number of addresses from white and colored citizens, and what will highten the interest of the occasion, there will be an old fashioned barbecue, to which all are invited. Let there be a good turn out. There is nothing like exchanging notes with our neighbors, especially "just before the battle, mother." The camp fires will be burning in Memphis this evening, and we shall all be back in time to inspire our friends with good news from the country, and participate with them in the general "jubilo." Colonel Jones has, in his usual attention to the wants of the community, placed a special train on the route to Brownsville and back, and the spirit of accommodation should meet with a corresponding patronage. Let us all go who can, and crowd the cars. It will be an agreeable excursion, and it will be a most interesting meeting.

ITEMETTES.

The paving of Madison street is again progressing.

The residence of Marcus Jones, on Pontotoc street, was robbed on Monday night.

The Hon. John W. Smith will speak at Bartlett to-day, and at Wythe station this evening.

On one plantation in Fayette county, where thirty-eight colored hands are worked, there is not a single Brownlow Radical.

General Thomas, who is stopping at the Overton Hotel, was called on yesterday by a number of our leading citizens.

A special train for the Bartlett barbecue and the grand Brownsville gathering will leave at seven o'clock this morning.

The room of I. S. Butler, Esq., was robbed on Saturday night of two hundred and fifty dollars' worth of money and clothing.

Wishing to find a place for a young man, the County Commissioners yesterday ordered Director of Burials Noil to keep a clerk.

A drove of one hundred and sixteen horses, from southwestern Texas, were brought into Memphis yesterday.

A man named Muldoon was tried before 'Squire Miller, yesterday, in an affidavit he had made before Police Commissioner Richards, but the proof was wanting to sustain the charge, and the case was dismissed.

Remember that, in the Legislature, little General Smith, the Radical candidate for the State Senate, voted against a resolution asking Congress to take off the three cents a pound tax on cotton, and is even now in favor of that unjust tax.

Every voter should know that nearly every candidate on the Radical ticket was a secessionist, who urged others into rebellion, then deserted them, and now wishes to disfranchise them forever for doing as he urged them to do.

Neither F. S. Richards, the Radical candidate for Floater, nor little General Smith, nor any of their friends for them, have dared to deny that they got each five thousand dollars' worth of city railroad stock for using their influence in the Legislature to have the fare raised from five to ten cents a trip.

A great change of opinion is said to be going on among the colored people of the rural districts. They begin to think the Radical leaders have been humbugging them to secure their votes, and hundreds of them who were a fortnight ago for Brownlow, will now vote for equal rights to all men.

Some extra fine tomatoes, grown by J. W. Watson on his place upon Central avenue, three miles from the city, were yesterday presented to Colonel Gallaway. One of them weighed one and a half pounds, and others were almost like unto it.

The duel that was anticipated between Doctor Tolles and Barbour Lewis has been smothered by intervention of friends, and the conscientious scruples of one of the parties. Barbour Lewis claims that he didn't mean anything by his shabby treatment of the Doctor on the railroad car.

There are now seven companies of United States soldiers here. They will remain in the navy yard until their services are wanted. On election day they will be kept under the trees around Court Square, in readiness for any call that may be made on them.

Eaton, the Radical candidate for State Superintendent of Common Schools, has never yet denied the charges made against him by respectable colored men, of misusing his authority in the Freedmen's Department, speculating on the donations sent from the North to needy blacks, selling the lumber of colored soldiers, and speculating on binding out colored orphans.

A correspondent directs our attention to a case of gross official harshness. A landlord got out a writ to dispossess a widow, who was his tenant, and, without any previous notification, the officer in whose hands the writ was placed, put out in a heavy rain the things of the widow. An officer who would do so, even for extra pay, is unfit for his position.

The fire yesterday afternoon was of small account. It was occasioned by a Mrs. Murphy, who at No. 10 Commerce street poured coal oil into a fire to make it burn faster. The oil can burst, and the place was set on fire. Mrs. Murphy was much burned. A hose cart ran over and broke one of the legs of a man named Patrick Casey, who was carrying things out of the burning building.

The idea of the County Commissioners, that when any miserably poor person applies to the Director of Burials for a coffin to bury a father, a mother, a husband, or a child, he is to fleece them of the last cent they have, is not creditable to their humanity. In one case, a poor negro wanted a coffin to bury a child. He had two dollars and a half to purchase food for the living members of his family, but he had to give that up to Mr. Noll before he would give him a coffin. In another case, the last quarter of a dollar was taken from a needy mourner. Surely such charity is not what the people of Shelby county approve.

The colored people at Brownsville, having had a fair trial of Radicalism, are satisfied that it is not so charming as white and colored demagogues painted it, consequently many will vote the Conservative ticket and many will not vote at all. In the disturbance in the Square at Brownsville, Eaton, Nunn and the other white Radicals, except Poston, showed the white feather so plainly, and left the blacks so shamefully during the fracas that quite a shock was given to colored confidence. The conduct of the Brownlow militia increased this feeling. In one case a white man was ridden on a rail without cause, in another a colored girl was inveigled into a lonely place and then brutally abused by a number of the scoundrels. Uniformly they stole all the pigs and chickens they wanted, and committed so many other outrages that every white and colored man knew their real character. The reaction came, and Radicalism is rapidly dying out in Haywood county.

AGREEMENT FOR ELECTION DAY.

General Forrest to Co-operate.

By agreement between the leaders of both political parties, and at the solicitation of the city and police authorities, and many of our most influential citizens, I have consented to act in conjunction with Mr. Beaumont, Superintendent of Metropolitan Police, on Thursday next—"election day"—in the maintenance of peace and good order throughout our city.

To this end I have selected the following named gentlemen, who will secure the services of ten men each, including themselves, to do duty on that occasion, and report the list of names selected by them to me by Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

RIVER NEWS.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, July 31, 1867.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Yesterday was a pleasant day with a cool breeze stirring having that clear and beautiful appearance which makes one feel that such weather will continue. Business on the landing was not active, but fair for the season. The Upper Mississippi is again falling. At St. Louis the rise they anticipated did not put in an appearance, but, on the contrary, it has again taken the downward track. At Louisville there was a slight rise owing to the rains, but it was momentary and has ceased. The Arkansas is yet very high, but about on a stand. At this point the fall goes on steadily, but slowly.

ARRIVALS.

IN PORT.

Rowena, Argonaut, St. Louis.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Captain W. Jay Johnson, of the Star wharf-boat, is at home. Captain Johnson looks well, as usual, after his protracted trip toward the North Pole.

The Adam Jacobs takes the place of the Belle St. Louis in the Packet Company, and will go out to-morrow evening for Cairo and St. Louis. Captain Crane is in command, and Mr. Frank Banksmith is in the office. The Jacobs has been put in fine order.

We were pleased to meet Mr. Frank L. James, formerly of the Mobile Times, in our sanctum yesterday. Mr. James has been in our city on business for the past few days. Many of our readers remember his graceful and facile pen while connected with the Times. We hope that his short stay in our city will be a pleasant one.

We have no Arkansas river boat in port. This is a rare occurrence, and one which we do not remember to have occurred for many months.

The Commercial went out with a fair trip, and the Great Republic passed up with a well filled cabin, but little freight.

The Argonaut No. 2, Captain Everhart, will leave to-day at five p.m. for Cairo and Louisville.

Captain Alf. Steine, of the Clifton, was in town yesterday.

The Minneola, Captain Miller, will leave for Cairo and Cincinnati on Friday next

Captain Sam. McPheeters is one of the most popular officers in the packet trade. His packet, the City of Alton, went out with a large passenger trip.

The Louisville Democrat says:

On the last trip up of the sternwheel steamer Mollie Gratz she met with an accident at Plowhandle Point. A cylinder head had bursted, and her wheel wouldn't hang on behind. We did hear that the tiller rope got tangled in the wheel in the pilot house, and Dave Olsxon tried to pull the rudders and wheel over the stern of the Gratz, but the engines wouldn't let go. She will be out in a day or two.

The employees of the Northwestern Union Packet Company, are on a strike for an increase of wages. The roustabouts of the line want $40 a month. The Phil. Sheridan made a trip without help, and could therefore handle no freight. On Friday, the Itasca's "bone and sinew" left, which threw the work of loading and unloading on the deck hands and mates, compelling the boat to leave salt and coal behind in the Dunleith depot. The harvest is progressing, and the men think they can do better than work for bed and board.

The Board of Supervising Inspectors of steamboats met at Chicago on the 26th. A. G. Burns, of Buffalo, was elected Chairman.

The Portsmouth and Big Sandy packet, Victor No. 3, while making a landing at Munn's Run, just below Sciotoville, a few days ago, struck a snag, and sunk in six feet of water. The Telegraph brought her passengers to Portsmouth. She was insured for $5,000 each in the Portsmouth, Germania, and Enterprise offices.

The Minneapolis Tribune publishes the sum total of the damage caused by the recent great flood. Damage to the suspension and St. Anthony bridges will be covered by $15,000. That to the lumbermen—34,500,000 feet of logs—valued at $200,000.

Captain David White was in Davenport on Friday soliciting subscriptions for stock of that new line of telegraph wire wanted along the bank of the Mississippi. He seems entirely withdrawn from and regardless of steamboat interests.

The M. V. T. Company will send out two tows a week instead of one, their business having increased to such an extent as will justify them in doing so.

The Big Horn, from Fort Benton, July 11th, which arrived at St. Joseph on the 27th, left in port the Guidon, Tom Stevens and Luella. She met the Centralia ten miles above Big Cheyenne river.

The Captains' Benevolent Association of Louisville held their regular meeting at their hall Saturday evening. Owing to the restricted state of navigation, freights were enhanced for the present week, as follows: Pound lots ten cents per hundred over former rates. Pork and whisky advanced twenty-five cents per barrel; and potatoes, unions, etc., taken at ninety cents per barrel. All other articles enhanced in the same ratio.

The Dubuque Herald of the 27th says: "The river came to a stand yesterday, the St. Cloud freshet having reached here in all probability. At six o'clock Tuesday evening the river at St. Paul was stationary, and was then nineteen feet and one inch above low water mark."

Monday's Louisville Courier says: The river was evidently swelling a little at the head of the falls yesterday with, 3 feet 7 inches water in the canal, by the mark in the evening. During Saturday it had fallen an inch The weather has continued cloudy for three days, threatening rain most of the time, though but a few showers have fallen. This has had the influence to lay the dust, cool the atmosphere, and make a rise of an inch at the falls. The sand bars are also rising, or becoming more numerous and troublesome, and the light draught mail boat Gen. Buell, found lodgings on Rising Sun bar, and a lighter Pickett had to relieve her of her surplus weights and bring her trip to Louisville. Rising Sun bar is very damaging to the commercial interests of Cincinnati, that flourishing town being, most singularly, cut off or debarred from unrestricted commerce and trade in moderately low stages of water by the Rising Sun bar, and in a moderately high stage of water by that famous or rather infamous, excrescence, the Covington and Cincinnati bridge. Between the two all is smooth water and comfortable navigation, but beyond lies the other, which, keeps Cincinnati in continual bother.

The St. Louis Democrat says: The river continued falling yesterday, There is good water yet to Keokuk and St Paul. Falling from Keokuk down. On Friday, stationary at St. Paul and 19 feet 1 inch above low water mark. On Saturday, rising slowly at Dubuque. The decline in the Illinois continues steady. Missouri river falling at Lexington, above and below, with still a fair stage of water. Weather scorching hot, but a cooling breeze prevailed yesterday. Business good. Receipts of produce heavy: shipments correspondingly large. Competitions to all points except the Ohio river and upper Mississipi Rates of freight extremely low in consequence, and no intimation of compromises to raise rates. Tonnage of all kinds in excess.

The recent floods in Southern Missouri have been very destructive. In Taney and Ozark counties many a farmer has lost his labors in a few hours by the rain which fell upon the earth. On Big Creek the waters rose twenty and thirty feet, and corn fields were in some instances ten feet under water. The farm of Ben. Jones was covered with water, and the family was awakened by the water rising in the house. The family made their escape to the adjoining hill, and soon after saw their house, with its contents, swept away by the flood. On Pond Fork the house of Widow Marsh was swept away. Next was the house of Mr. Stone. The family got out, with only three quilts, and escaped to the adjoining hill. The water continued to rise until it nearly covered the house before it was swept away. Four miles further down the creek the water surrounded the house of Mr. Haskinson, and rose so rapidly that the family were unable to escape. They went into the loft of the house, and from thence, making an opening they escaped to the roof. Soon the house began to move, and went down stream about a quarter of a mile when it came in contact with a large tree in which the family took refuge. The house soon after went in pieces, and after the waters had subsided the next day the family were rescued.

In all European voyages there are several ladies who keep their staterooms from the beginning, eating nothing, holding nothing, crying to the captain to stop the ship and put them on shore, and asking piteously whether the next wave will be as big as the last one. These are all hauled up on the fourth day, and have a sensation on being bounced into the air and left hanging there.

The surveying party which left Ottawa in March last under direction of the Government to ascertain the length of Ottawa river, has returned, and reports the length of the river to be about one thousand miles. The Lake Gros is about four hundred miles in circumference. The navigation from Lake Tomiscaingle to Lake Gros is impeded by numerous rapids. Beyond the Lake Gros the source of the Ottawa river is said to be within fifty miles of headwaters. The explorers encountered large quantities of ice on Lake Gros on the 24th of May. The natives are pagans and the men have a plurality of wives.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods on store.

The sheds will be divided into fire proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or so near. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to a drayage on all cotton sent for compression from other warehouses, while on all cotton in our warehouse for compression there can be two drayages saved, since it would be as easy for us to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

Special Notice.

I FIND in yesterday's Appeal a statement from Mr. N. B. Sneed, Dentist of Savannah, to the effect that Dr. Sneed had bought my office, furniture, etc., and that I would vacate on the 1st of August

In justice to myself and friends, I beg to state that NO SUCH TRANSACTION BETWEEN DR. SNEED AND MYSELF HAS BEEN EFFECTED. F. W. GARKEY, D D S
MEMPHIS, Monday July 8, 1867

Notice.

ON or about the 18th day of October, 1866, I executed my promissory note to one Thomas Barrett for the sum of ten thousand dollars, due and payable on or about the 1st of October, 1871, five days afterwards the said Barrett, by false and fraudulent representations induced me to make two other notes for five thousand dollars each, due and payable on or about the 1st of October, 1871, alleging, among other things, that said note for ten thousand dollars had been legally or properly executed, and that he had torn up and destroyed the same.

The public are now hereby warned not to buy or trade for any of said notes, the consideration for said ten thousand dollar note having failed, and the said two notes for five thousand dollars each having been fraudulently obtained by the said Thomas Barrett.

FRIDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES

Facts and Fancies from Washington.

The Cholera Raging on the Plains.

A Riot in Columbia, South Carolina.

Sheridan to be Supplanted by Hancock.

The Political Situation in Georgia.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The Herald's Leavenworth special says that parties from Fort Gibson report the cholera as raging there to an alarming extent. One hundred and twenty five persons had fled from Ellsworth City to escape the disease. The average mortality in the place is from ten to twelve persons per day, and nine out of every ten who are attacked die in from seven to fifteen hours. The town is almost completely deserted, and an attack from Indians was hourly expected. From four to five deaths per day are reported at Fort Harker. The scurvy has also broken out among the troops at Forts Larned and Dodge.

The Herald's Washington special says Sheridan will be superceded in command by General Hancock, and that Secretary Stanton's continued opposition to the policy of the President has created between the two a positive distaste for one another's society, and that Secretary Stanton's resignation is devoutly wished for by the Executive.

The World's special says that General Sheridan has determined to remove Governor Throckmorton, of Texas, and appoint A. J. Hamilton in his stead.

AUGUSTA, July 30.—The political situation is exciting a lively interest throughout the State. The recent letters of Johnson, Hill and Perry have shaken the faith of many who have heretofore favored reorganization under the military bill. It is said that the anti-convention sentiment is becoming more popular with the whole people of the State.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 30.—William J. Armstrong, the representative of the Congressional Republican Committee, and J. O. Thompson, a correspondent of the New York Times, were assaulted here last night in the Nicherson House. No fatal injuries were sustained by either of the parties assailed. Governor Orr was present during the last of the riot, and advised peace by urging the assailed to retire to their rooms. Ratcliffe, the most prominent assailant, is a brother of the Chief of Police. The rioters were arrested and immediately liberated on bail. General Burton, post commander was appealed to this morning. He has the rioters now under military arrest.

LATEST FROM MEXICO.

General Escobedo's Letter in Full.

He Defies the Yankees.

The Ranchero of the 20th finds in the Boletin Officiale of the 13th:

The letter in full of Escobedo reads thus. It is addressed to the Governor (Gomez) of Nuevo Leon:

"The execution of the traitors, which I had the satisfaction of directing, is good food for digestion. It will satisfy the Europeans, and the Yankees, too, that to trifle with Mexicans is death by the law. Had we complied with the request of the Yankees to spare the filibustero and his associate traitors it would have been taken for cowardice, and the next thing would have been a request to give up our lands, our mines and our women. After this we shall be allowed to worship our own God, till our own soil, work our own mines, and not have our women defiled by Yankee libertines.

I am now in favor of making clean work of the detested "Gringos." This country belongs to God and us, and just so long as one foreigner remains on our soil, our liberty is in jeopardy. By every means in our power we should make the country Mexican; and as all the propery in the hands of foreigners was made by our misfortunes, we should take it, now that we have the power, and hunt them from the country. My motto now is death to all estrangeros!

There is no danger of the Yankees interfering with us so long as the Southern States (Estados del Sur) are kept out of the Union; besides the black men would side with us, and may at any time pronounce againts the whites. Before we get through with the foreigners, the Yankees will think we are in earnest, and the time will come when their notables will be begging for their own heads, instead of begging for the Austrian.

In our struggles for liberty, we have lost nearly all. Our lands, and our mines, and our liberty, and our women, and our honors we still have, but the foreigners have all the available wealth of the Republic; but they will see in less than three years that Mexicans will have what they want in Mexico. You will understand from this my position, and should I by any chance whatever become a candidate, you will understand my unalterable platform. Whenever the time comes you can make this letter public in such manner as you think proper. I know that you and I think alike on these matters, and I know that my countrymen will applaud our patriotic determination.

God and Liberty! ESCOBEDO.

BROWNLOW BARBARISM.

Fiendish Murder of a Member of Stewart's Militia.

[Correspondence of the Union and Dispatch.]

SPARTA, July 25.—Last week Stewart's Company of "loyal militia" got up a difficulty with one of their own men named Bill Davis. Captain Stewart ordered Davis arrested. They say he broke to run, when they shot him, then brought him back and staked him down to the earth, with his hands, feet and head all tied to the ground. He lay in this condition until the next morning, when he was untied, and turning over on his side, died in a few minutes. Considerable indignation is expressed by the Union men of the vicinity at this inhuman outrage. ARGUS.

A prize fight came off Thursday afternoon at Red Bank, New Jersey, between Captain Isaiah Rynders, of New York, and Thomas Evans, of Newark. After thirty-seven rounds Rynders was declared the winner, and Evans was taken away almost dead. Both of the blackguards are reported now as doing well. The fight was for six hundred dollars a side. No arrests were made.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, July 31, 1867.

The general market remains inactive, except for a few staples, and money is even more stringent than previously reported. Bank balances are steadily diminishing, and there is little prospect for ease in local finances before fall.

EXCHANGE—Is dull, dealers selling at ⅛@¼ premium on St. Louis and Cincinnati, and ¼@⅜ premium on New York.

GOLD—Was more liberally offered, and dealers bought fair amounts for shipment at 139@139¼, but there were no calls at the counter.

SILVER—Was easier, dealers buying for shipment at 130, for halves and quarters.

CITY SCRIP—Was quiet and steady, at 58c buying, and 60c selling; nothing doing on a large scale. Some small pieces of police scrip were taken at 58@60c, and sales made at a range of 61@65c, but the market for this article is exceedingly dull and few dealers are disposed to buy.

COUNTY SCRIP—Is dull at 77@78c buying, and 80@82c selling.

Nothing doing in stocks or bonds, and prices nominal.

TENNESSEE MONEY—Remains inactive, as previously quoted. Bank of Tennessee, old issue, 30c; bank of West Tennessee, 40c; bank of Chattanooga, 10c; bank of Middle Tennessee, 95c; City Bank, 60c; Merchant's Bank, 45c; Northern Bank, 95c; Ocoee Bank, 9c; Planters' Bank, 98c; Union Bank, 98c; Shelbyville Bank, 80c; Southern Bank, 20c; Traders' Bank, 95c.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, July 31, 1867.

COTTON—There was an animated demand for good styles, but few sellers at buyers' offerings, and consequently few transactions occurred. From the sales reported we quote as follows:

Ordinary	18 @20
Good ordinary	[illegible]
Low middling	[illegible]
Middling	[illegible]
Strict middling	[illegible]

GENERAL MARKET.

[NOTE.—Our quotations are the wholesale prices unless otherwise stated. In filling small orders to the city or country trade an advance of three to five per cent. is obtained.]

CORN—The market yesterday was dull with a [illegible] trade doing; prices lower. Choice white ruled at $1 20@1 25; yellow at $1 10@1 12½

OATS—Duller; drooping at 95@97½c.

HAY—Scarce; prime timothy, $26@27 per ton. Inferior, $23@24.

FLOUR—Dull with more new in the market. Prices firm; fine, $7@7 50; X, $11 25@11 50; XX, $12 50@13 50; XXX, $14@14 50; fancy brands, $15@16.

CORNMEAL—Was dull at a decline; kiln dried, $6@6 25 per bbl, on levee.

PROVISIONS—The market was quiet with a fair stock on hand; prices were firm. Mess pork dull at $26@26 50 per bbl.; prime, $21 50@22 00. Bacon dull; clear sides, 16¾@17c; clear ribbed sides, 15¾@16c; shoulders, 13½@14c; plain canvassed hams 18@20c; sugar cured canvassed hams, 20@22½c; breakfast bacon, 17@20c.

LARD—Dull; keg leaf 14c@15; tierce, 12½@13c.

COFFEE—Market steady with a small trade doing; Rio, 25@28c; Laguira, 32@33c; Java, 40@41c.

MOLASSES—Market inactive, with a small trade doing. New Orleans 80 to 90; Sorghum at 65 to 75c. Syrups 95c to $1 40.

SUGAR—Steady and quiet. Orleans 13½ to 16c; crushed and powdered 18@19c; coffee sugars 16@18c; yellow refined 13 to 15c.

EGGS—Abundant and dull at 20@22c.

CHICKENS—Abundant and dull at $3@5 per doz.

BUTTER—Choice yellow dull at 23@24c; common, nominal.

POTATOES—Fair receipts, selling from $3 50 to $4 50 per barrel; sweet potatoes, few in market, and selling at $5 50@6 per barrel.

ONIONS—Dull at $5 00@5 50 per brl.

BEANS—Scarce.

MECHANICAL WONDER
THE HICKS STEAM ENGINE.

MANUFACTURED BY THE
HICKS STEAM ENGINE COMPANY,
OF DELAWARE.
BLANTON DUNCAN, Pres't.
THOS. R. SHARP, Gen'l Sup't.
WE beg leave to call the attention of the public to this wonderful Steam Engine, now on exhibition at the Avalanche Office, 22 Jefferson Street
Which is cheaper, lighter, less intricate, occupies less space, consumes less fuel than any other engine, and is superior in every other way, it being in fact a double cut off engine, without the friction of a double set of valves with their multiform attachments, and for its superior merits was AWARDED THE GOLD MEDAL
At the Maryland Institute Fair, in October, 1866, over all other engines. This invention, therefore forms the most radical and entire change in steam engines which has occurred since the days of Watts, being durable, accurate, and economical in operation and space beyond all comparison with the past, and at far less original cost than ever before attained. All orders will be promptly filled by
GALLAWAY, HAMPTON & CO.,
Avalanche Building.
Or WORMELEY, JOY & CO.,

Alleghany Springs, Montgomery Co., Virginia.
THIS celebrated Watering Place having undergone thorough repairs and been furnished throughout every department with entirely new and first class furniture, will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 15th day of June.
The reputation of this water is so extensive and so firmly established that it is useless to enumerate the particular diseases for which it is a specific. The proprietors have endeavored to make it as attractive as any Watering Place in the mountains of Virginia.
Comfortable coaches will meet each train at Shawsville for the conveyance of passengers to the Springs. The resident partner will be assisted in the management by a gentleman of experience, and no pains spared to render visitors comfortable.
C. A. CALLHOUN, Agent.

Rockbridge Alum Springs,
VIRGINIA.
THIS favorite and delightful watering place will be open JUNE FIRST. Arrangements are making to render it more than ever attractive to all in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its remarkable medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health.
Its reputation is established as a cure for SCROFULA and most of the Glandular and Cutaneous affections, CHRONIC DIARRHEA and DYSENTERY, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, THRUSH, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, DROPSY and PILES. In all anemic conditions of the system and broken down states of the constitution, Loss of appetite and general Nervous Prostration, their powers and virtues as a Restorative are without a known rival among the mineral waters of the world. They are especially indicated in the ailments peculiar to the female constitution.
The Springs are distant only eleven hours from Richmond and twelve hours from Washington by rail; in the midst of the grand mountain ranges of Virginia; in the same county with the famous Natural Bridge, from which it takes its name, and near to Lexington, Washington College, and the Military Institute; the home of LEE, and the tomb of JACKSON.
For all particulars of routes, location and properties of the water, see Springs' pamphlet, sent free by mail.
The bottled water and the salts of the water (or "mass") can at all times be had fresh and genuine from Heyeman & Co., New York; Coleman & Rogers Baltimore; Purcell, Ladd & Co., Richmond, and A. B. Rucker, Lynchburg, Va.
A superior BAND OF MUSIC for both lawn and ball-room in attendance during the season.

MEDICAL.

RELIEF TO ALL AFFLICTED!
EDWARD WILDER'S
FOUR GREAT
HEALTH-RESTORING REMEDIES.

EDWARD WILDER'S
FAMOUS
Stomach Bitters
Will cure DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, and all species of INDIGESTION, INTERMITTENT FEVER, FEVER and AGUE, and all PERIODICAL DISEASES.
It will give immediate relief in Cholic and Flux.
It will cure Costiveness.
It is a mild and delightful Invigorant for delicate Females.
It is a safe Anti-Bilious Alterative and Tonic for all Family purposes.
It is a powerful recuperant after the frame has been debilitated or reduced by sickness.
It is an excellent Appetiser as well as strengthener of the digestive forces.
It is desirable alike as a Corrective and a mild Cathartic.
The body of all similar preparations is common raw Whisky or Alcohol, which contains a large amount of Fusil Oil and other poisonous substances, whilst the body of Edward Wilder's stomach bitters is pure Old Bourbon Copper-distilled Whisky the best and purest Whisky known or produced. This fact alone recommends and places these Bitters at the head of all other known preparations for all the diseases for which they are recommended, as is testified by numberless certificates from the ablest Medical men and from the Ministry.

EDWARD WILDER'S
SARSAPARILLA AND POTASH.
An unfailing and rapid cure for SCROFULA in all its forms every known variety of Constitutional SYPHILIS or VENEREAL DISEASE, NEURALGIA, SKIN DISEASES—no matter how old, or inveterate—Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofulous Sore Eyes, Glandular Swellings of the Neck or elsewhere, Chronic Chills and Fever, Tetter, Weeping Sore Leg, Ulcers of every kind, Pimples on the Face, Ringworm, Scald-Head Falling of the Hair or Allopecia, White Swelling, Hip-Joint Disease or Morbus Coxarius, Chronic Erysipelas, Dropsy Ague-Cake, etc.
For the rapid and permanent cure of the above Diseases this preparation stands unrivalled. A CURE IS GUARANTEED IN EVERY CASE where it is used according to directions.

EDWARD WILDER'S
COMPOUND EXTRACT
OF
WILD CHERRY
This preparation is specially recommended as affording certain and prompt relief for COUGHS, COLDS and CATARRHS of every description. In Bronchitis, Laryngitis and Asthma or Phthisic it gives immediate comfort and relief. It is also admirably adapted to the relief of the cough and difficulty of breathing in CONSUMPTION. It is also indispensable in Pneumonia or Winter Fever, Pleurisy, and every conceivable form of PULMONARY DISEASE attended with cough, difficulty of breathing, or pain. For taste, efficiency and power this medicine has no equal, and when used in any of the above diseases has never been known to fail to give almost instant relief, followed by certain and permanent cure.

EDWARD WILDER'S
Family Pills,
For the cure of CONSTIPATED and SLUGGISH BOWELS in these conditions of the alimentary canal they are GUARANTEED to be perfectly infallible. As a Purgative in all Fevers and Inflammatory diseases, in Rheumatism, Inflammation of the Liver, Brain, Kidneys and Bladder, in Erysipelas, Fever and Ague, Acute Opthalmia or Sore Eyes Fullness of the Head, Vertigo, Dizziness, Deafness, etc., they cannot be excelled. These Pills will be found, on trial, to be far superior to any known other combination of medicines in the rapid and certain cure of all the above diseases. They should be taken with Edward Wilder's Sarsaparilla and Potash in the diseases in which that remedy is recommended; and with Edward Wilder's Compound Extract of Wild Cherry in Coughs Colds, etc.; and with Edward Wilder's Stomach Bitters for Chills and Fevers and Fever and Ague.

REMEMBER
[illegible] been tested in the Family circle by Chemical analysis, and at the Dispensaries throughout the country, for each and every Disease for which they are recommended, and that in no single case has any of them ever been known to fail in giving instant relief, followed by certain and permanent cure. Their medicinal virtue and power is attested alike by the ablest Medical men, and by the Ministry; and, in a word, any of them that they are truly the FOUR GREATEST MEDICINES OF THE AGE, and that no family ought to be without them. They compose the best Family Medicine Chest that can be made.
Call for "Edward Wilder's Famous Stomach Bitters," "Edward Wilder's Sarsaparilla and Potash," "Edward Wilder's Compound Extract of Wild Cherry," "Edward Wilder's Family Pills," and take none other, as all others are secret remedies whilst the formula of Edward Wilder's Medicines will be shown to any regular graduate of medicine. Use them according to directions, and a cure is guaranteed.
